ABOUT YOUR GUEST

Most guests talk about rest. Raven takes your listeners there.

Raven serves compassionate, gifted Kingdom women and leaders who are dedicated to Kingdom impact. She certifies coaches, teachers, creatives, and ministry leaders in Neuro-Informed Prophetic Art Facilitation, pairing our God-designed nervous system with Holy Spirit-led creativity so people can encounter God at the canvas and hear what's going on underneath the noise.

She is the founder of Kumi Collective. "Kumi" means "arise" in Hebrew and Aramaic, the word Jesus spoke over a young girl when He raised her to life (Mark 5:41). Everything she teaches flows through Kumi's ART: Arise, Receive, Transform process. No art skills needed.

A MINI RETREAT, LIVE ON AIR

Somewhere in the conversation, the interview turns into an encounter.

Raven invites host and listeners to pick up a pen and spend a few unhurried minutes with Jesus and a single verse. No script, no performance. Just presence.
