Reflection

Our reflection this week is on Mary, Mother of the Church: A journey through the women of the bible.

Before the council of Nicaea, there were many Fathers of the Church who taught about Mary, although Mary and the tradition about her was not known in a public way. St. Irenaeus addresses the virginity of Mary and Eve. Ignatius of Antioch refers many times to Mary as the Mother of God. Jesus was born of the Virgin Mary and raised by her as truly human. St. Clement of Alexandria says that Mary is the Virgin Mother and that the Church is the Virgin Mother. He also said that the universal Father is one, and that the universal Word is one, and that the Holy Spirit is one and the same everywhere. Mary is a pure virgin and loving mother who nurses her children with holy milk, the body of Christ. Origen compared Mary to the Church as universal mother. He said that since the body needs the soul to move, Mary, too, is the soul of the councils of the Church that will make her move. Eve, having lost her virginity through her disobedience, became ashamed of her nakedness, where she had not been ashamed of her sin, and then she had caused death for herself and for all mankind. Mary, through her obedience, became the cause of salvation, the restoration of life to all mankind. The virgin Eve did not believe, while the virgin Mary, by her faith, believed the angel Gabriel, where she had found favor with God. Mary, exulting because of this, cried out, prophesying in the name of the Church, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

The Council of Nicaea (325) taught that Christ is one with the Father, and the Council of Ephesus taught that Mary is the Mother of God. The councils proclaimed that whoever was against this teaching was condemned. After the Council, the Fathers of the Church also taught that Mary is the New Ark, and that through her the Church is born, she is the beginning of the New Creation. St. Athanasius strongly taught about Mary's virginity and that she is the Mother of God. God prepared the virgin Mary, untouched by sin, untouched by man, to dwell in her as a temple for himself. Basil the Great and his younger brother Gregory of Nyssa, supported the virginity of Mary. Mary trusted the angel Gabriel after she says: "How will this happen to me, since I do not know man?" (LK 1:34). St. Ambrose of Milan called Mary the face of the Church. As the Virgin Church has created the faithful by the Holy Spirit and gives birth to us without pain, the Virgin Mary remains a Virgin after the birth of Jesus. Like Origen before the Council, St. Augustine went furthest, claiming that Mary and the Church are identical.

Saint Naamtallah Prayer

Saint Naamtallah, man of God, monk, priest, teacher, worker, servant, and Prior who lived heroically according to the evangelical counsels of obedience, chastity, and poverty. You made the mystery of the Eucharist the center of your daily life and taught your disciples and brothers the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity. You managed with responsibility and humility the ministries entrusted to you by the Church, and you worked silently and diligently. You served people and souls with joy and selflessness.

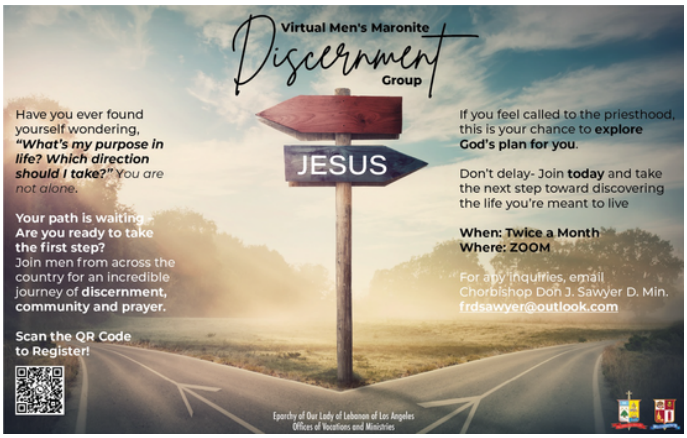

We implore you to intercede for us with the Holy Trinity, that He may grant us to be guided by your example, to follow in your footsteps, and to strive as you did, and to attain the same holiness and union with our Lord Jesus Christ. May we listen, like you, to the inspirations of the Holy Spirit, and love, as you did, the Virgin Mary, the Mother of God and our Mother, and glorify with you God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit forever. Amen.

أيها القديس نعمة الله، الراهب، والكاهن، المعلم والمدبر، العامل والخادم. يا من عشت بطولة المشورات الإنجيلية، الطاعة والعفة والفقر، وجعلت محور حياتك اليومية سر الإفخارستيا، وعلّمت تلاميذك وإخوتك الفضائل الإلهية، الإيمان والرجاء والمحبة، ودبّرت بمسؤولية وتواضع ما أسندت إليك الكنيسة من خِدم، وعملت بصمت وجديّة، وخدمت الناس والنفوس. نسألك أن تشفع لنا لدي الثالوث القدوس، فيمنحنا أن نهتدي بفرح ومجانبة. و نبلغ ما بلغت من قداسة واتحاد بربنا. ونسعى مسعاك، ونقتدي خطاك بمثلك ونصغى نظيرك الى إلهامات الروح القدوس ونحب مثلك يسوع المسيح و العذراء مريم أم الله أمّنا، و نمجّد معك الله الآب والإبن والروح القدوس إلى الأبد. آمين

"The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few."

Hearing God's call in a world where there is so much noise is never easy. Nonetheless, we know there are men in our parishes called to the priesthood. Can we help them hear this call?

Let us increase our efforts to discern with them, to the best of our abilities, and put them on the right path. In this way we will be privileged to accompany men who show signs of a vocation to the priesthood, as well as promote the beauty of the priesthood in all that we do.

The Office of Vocations of the Eparchy of Our Lady of Lebanon and the Eparchy of Saint Maron, will be holding a discernment weekend from Friday November 6th to Sunday November 8th at the Maronite Seminary, in Washington DC. If you know of anyone discerning a vocation to the priesthood, or would like to know more, please email the Seminary at:

They will be able to experience a weekend in the life of a seminarian by joining us for Liturgy, Adoration, meals, prayers and hanging out. This weekend is a great opportunity for them to come and see what a weekend in the life of a seminarian is like!

Vocation

A Light To Our Maronite Church

The Maronite Servants of Christ the Light are a congregation of consecrated religious serving the Church in the parish as spiritual mothers in imitation of Mary, radiating the Light of Christ in their life of contemplative prayer, asceticism, and apostolic mission to children, youth, young adults, families, the sick, dying, and grieving... We serve alongside the priest in pastoral ministry reaching out with a maternal touch to the many needs of the parish family.
