Last updated November 19, 2026

CJL Innovations, LLC operates carlajlewis.com. These terms apply when you use the website and the related forms and booking pages we use to deliver resources, manage registrations, and schedule conversations.

Using the website

Please provide accurate information when you submit a form or book a conversation. You may use the site for lawful purposes. You may not impersonate someone else, attempt to gain unauthorized access, interfere with the site, or use it to send spam or harmful code. We may restrict access to protect the site or its users, or in response to misuse.

Resources and services

Our articles, guides, worksheets, and other resources are for education and general information. Use your own judgment when applying them to your circumstances. We do not promise a particular business or leadership outcome.

Booking an introductory conversation or requesting a resource does not create an advisory or consulting engagement. If you register for a paid program or engage us for speaking, facilitation, advisory, or consulting work, the terms provided for that purchase or engagement govern it. Those terms may cover fees, what is included, cancellations, and refunds.

Using our materials

CJL Innovations, LLC or its licensors own the materials on the site, including written content, graphics, and downloadable resources. You may read, download, and print resources made available to you for your own use in your work, subject to any terms provided with the resource. You may share a link to the public page where we offer a resource. Please ask for written permission before republishing, distributing copies, reselling, or incorporating our materials into a course or other offering, except as permitted by law.

Third-party sites and tools

We use third-party tools, including The Hub by Mastermind, for some forms and scheduling. Other sites and tools may have their own terms and privacy policies. We do not control the content or practices of third-party sites.

Text messages

If you choose to receive text messages from CJL Innovations, LLC, we may send the kinds of messages described on the form where you opt in. Text-message consent is optional and is not a condition of purchase.

Message frequency varies. Message and data rates may apply. Reply STOP to opt out or HELP for assistance. You can also contact us at carla@cjlinnovations.com. Mobile carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

Privacy

The Privacy Policy explains how we handle personal information, including mobile numbers and text-message consent information. You can find it through the Privacy Policy link on carlajlewis.com.

Website availability

We provide the site and its general resources as available. We do not guarantee uninterrupted access or that every item will be current or error-free. To the extent permitted by law, the site and general resources are provided without express or implied warranties. These terms do not limit any rights that applicable law gives you and that cannot be waived.

Governing law

Michigan law and applicable federal law govern these website terms, subject to any mandatory protections that apply to you. If a provision is unenforceable, the remaining provisions continue to apply.

Updates and contact

When we update these terms, we'll make the revised version available through the Terms & Conditions link on carlajlewis.com and update the date above. If the law requires additional notice, we'll provide it.
